Editor's Note

Welcome to Volume 7, Issues 3 of the Journal of Conflict Management and Sustainable Development.

The Journal is a scholarly publication that focuses on key and emerging themes on Conflict Management and Sustainable Development.

Sustainable Development is arguably the most important theme of the 21st Century. In the wake of global challenges including poverty, gender inequalities, economic disparities between nations, global health challenges, climate change and environmental degradation, countries are faced with the dilemma of promoting development that meets the needs of both the present and future generations. It is on this basis that the Sustainable Development goals were adopted as the blueprint of development across the globe.

The Journal addresses some of the pertinent issues on Sustainable Development. However, development is not attainable in environment marred with conflicts. The discourse covered in the Journal aims at addressing some of these concerns with the overall goal being promoting a conflict free environment that will trigger Sustainable Development.

The Journal is peer reviewed and refereed in order to adhere to the highest quality of academic standards and credibility of information.
